THE LIFE OF CHRIST

Outlines of Jesus' public ministry with a possible chronology

1. The early life of Christ

2. Jesus' preparation for the ministry

3. Jesus' call of His first disciples and His early ministry in the year of inauguration

4. Jesus' second year of ministry in the year of popularity in Galilee

from December AD 27 to December AD 28  $\,$

5. Jesus' third year of ministry in the year of opposition from December AD 28 to September AD 29
6. Jesus' third year of ministry continues – the year of opposition – from September to December AD 29
7. Jesus in His last months – from January to April AD 30 – the Perean and Judean ministry
8. Jesus during His last days – the passion week

This chronology is made from Matthew's and John's Gospels. Of those four that wrote the Gospels, were these two disciples the only ones who followed in Jesus' footsteps. It is therefore supposed that they relate the story in the chronologic order they experienced it. According to some scholars, the apostle John wrote his Gospel at an age of 94 years and that he had most likely read the others' gospels. Therfore he does not repeat their stories, but he completed them in his gospel, in most cases, with events that he alone had experienced.

A broad outline of Jesus' 3<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub> years of ministry:

3½ is a very significant prophetic figure in the Bible. Dan 9:26-27; Rev 11:2-3; 12:14; 13:5. Most scholars teach that Jesus was born in BC 4 and that His ministry lasted during three and a half years. Here follows a broad outline of Jesus' ministry, which starts in December AD 26 when Jesus was about 30 years old (Lk 3:23) and ends with His ascension 3½ years later.
